

Surgical Options for Inflammatory Bowel Disease

There have been many advances in surgery for inflammatory bowel diseases (IBD). Many people with IBD endure discomfort needlessly because they try to avoid surgery at all costs, when in fact, surgery may be the way to achieve long-term symptom relief.

- Presenter: Dr. Mark Zebley, M.D., F.A.S.C.R.S., F.A.C.S
Colon and Rectal Associates, Ltd
- Date: Wednesday, May 20, 2015
- Time: 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
- Location: Lansdale Hospital--Conference Rooms E and F
- To Register: 215-481-2204 or www.abingtonhealth.org